Order Processing Workflow

The diagram below shows how an order flows through the system from checkout to delivery.

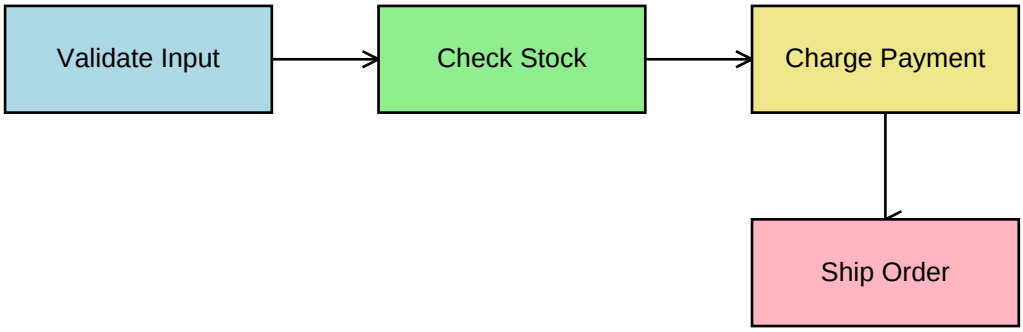

Figure 1: Order flow. Each stage must succeed before the next one starts.

If stock is unavailable the customer is notified and the order is cancelled.

Page two has only plain text without any figure at all, so no vision call is needed here.